

Instructions for Application to Adjust Status From Temporary to Permanent Resident (Under Section 245A of the INA)

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-698
OMB No. 1615-0035
Expires 03/31/2019

What Is the Purpose of This Application?

Persons who were granted temporary residence under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) can use this application to apply through U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to adjust to lawful permanent resident status. Individuals apply under section 245A of the INA, as amended by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, and section 902 of the U.S. Department of State Authorization Bill of 1987.

Who May File Form I-698?

To be eligible for lawful permanent residence under section 245A of the INA, you must meet all of the following requirements.

1. Apply for adjustment during the 1-year period beginning with the 19th month after the date you were granted temporary resident status.
2. Reside continuously in the United States since becoming a temporary resident alien (no single absence from the United States exceeded 30 days, or the total of all absences has not exceeded 90 days).

If you are absent from the United States for more than 30 days in a single absence or for more than a total of 90 days for all occurrences, during the period for which continuous residence is required for adjustment to lawful permanent residence, you will break the continuity of your residence unless you can establish to the satisfaction of USCIS that you did not, in fact, abandon your residence in the United States during that period.

3. Establish admissibility under section 212(a) of the INA. In determining the admissibility of an applicant, the provisions of sections 212(a)(6)(A) and 212(a)(7) of the INA will not apply to an applicant for adjustment of status as a temporary resident or lawful permanent resident under section 245A of the INA.

The Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) may not waive the following grounds of inadmissibility:

- A. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) (crimes involving moral turpitude);
- B. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) (crimes involving controlled substances, except for a single offense of simple possession of 30 grams or less of marijuana);
- C. Section 212(a)(2)(B) (multiple criminal convictions);
- D. Section 212(a)(2)(C) (controlled substance traffickers);
- E. Section 212(a)(3) (security and related grounds); and
- F. Section 212(a)(4) (public charge), except for an alien who is or was an aged, blind, or disabled individual (as defined in section 1614(a)(1) of the Social Security Act). An alien is not ineligible for adjustment of status due to inadmissibility under section 212(a)(4) if the alien demonstrates a history of employment in the United States showing self-support without receipt of public assistance. Special adjudication standards regarding public charge contained in any settlement agreements apply.

The Secretary may waive all other grounds of inadmissibility. In order to seek a waiver, you must submit Form I-690, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility Under Sections 245A or 210 of the INA.

4. Were NOT convicted of any felony or three or more misdemeanors committed in the United States.

5. Demonstrate that you:

- A. Meet the requirements of section 312 of the INA (relating to a minimal understanding of ordinary English and a knowledge and understanding of the history and Government of the United States); or
- B. Are satisfactorily pursuing a course of study recognized by the Secretary to achieve understanding of English and knowledge and understanding of the history and Government of the United States. Contact your local USCIS Office for more information about available courses.

General Instructions

USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have Internet access, you may call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask that we mail a form to you.

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee and biometric services fee. (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit the evidence and supporting documentation requested on the application or noted within these Instructions.

Biometrics Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of the local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment. If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.

Acknowledgement of Appointment at USCIS Application Support Center. Review the ASC Acknowledgement that appears in Part 5. of the application. The purpose of this acknowledgement is to confirm that you have completed your application, reviewed your responses, and verified that the information was provided by you and is complete, true, and correct. If someone helped you fill out your application, that person must review the ASC Acknowledgement with you to make sure you understand it.

Name Changes. If your name has changed since you were issued your Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766), you must submit a certified copy of the court decree or marriage certificate, as appropriate. A married person may file his or her application under either a maiden or current married name.

Copies. You may submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or request. If you submit original documents when not required, the documents may remain a part of the record, and USCIS will not automatically return them to you.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English.

What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-698 is $1,670, regardless of when it is filed. A biometric services fee of $85 is also required for applicants between 14 and 79 years of age.

NOTE: The filing fee and biometric services fee are not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Form I-698 filing fee and biometric services fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the checks or money orders payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send us a check, USCIS will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, USCIS will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.

How To Check If The Fees Are Correct

Individuals With Disabilities and/or Impairments

USCIS is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities and/or impairments that will help them fully participate in USCIS programs and benefits.

Reasonable accommodations vary with each disability and/or impairment. They may involve modifications to practices or procedures. There are various types of reasonable accommodations that USCIS may offer. Examples include, but are not limited to:

1. If you are deaf or hard of hearing, USCIS may provide you with a sign-language interpreter at an interview or other immigration benefit-related appointment;
2. If you are blind or have low vision, USCIS may permit you to take a test orally rather than in writing; or
3. If you are unable to travel to a designated USCIS location for an interview, USCIS may visit you at your home or a hospital.

If you believe that you need USCIS to accommodate your disabilities and/or impairments, select “Yes” and then any applicable box in Item Number 1. of Part 4. that describes the nature of your disabilities and/or impairments. Also, describe the types of accommodations you are requesting on the lines provided. If you are requesting a sign-language interpreter, indicate for which language. If you need extra space to complete this section, use the space provided in Part 8. Additional Information or attach a separate sheet of paper; type or print your name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.

NOTE: All domestic USCIS facilities meet the Accessibility Guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act, so you do not need to contact USCIS to request an accommodation for physical access to a domestic USCIS office. However, in Part 4. of the application, you can indicate whether you use a wheelchair. This will allow USCIS to better prepare for your visit.

USCIS also ensures that limited English proficient (LEP) individuals are provided meaningful access at an interview or other immigration benefit-related appointment, unless otherwise prohibited by law. LEP individuals may bring a qualified interpreter to the interview.

USCIS considers requests for reasonable accommodations on a case-by-case basis and we will make our best efforts to reasonably accommodate your disabilities and/or impairments. USCIS will not exclude you from participating in USCIS programs or deny your application because of your disabilities and/or impairments. Requesting and/or receiving an accommodation will not affect your eligibility for an immigration benefit.

Penalties

If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-698, we will deny your Form I-698 and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

USCIS Compliance Review and Monitoring

By signing this application, you have stated under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. section 1746) that all information and documentation submitted with this application is complete, true, and correct. You also authorized the release of any information from your records that USCIS may need to determine eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking and consent to USCIS verifying such information.

DHS has the authority to verify any information you submit to establish eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking at any time. USCIS’ legal right to verify this information is in 8 U.S.C. sections 1103, 1155, and 1184, and 8 CFR Parts 103, 204, 205, and 214. To ensure compliance with applicable laws and authorities, USCIS may verify information before or after your case is decided.

Agency verification methods may include, but are not limited to: review of public records and information; contact via written correspondence, the Internet, facsimile, other electronic transmission, or telephone; unannounced physical site inspections of residences and locations of employment; and interviews. USCIS will use the information obtained through verification to assess your compliance with the laws and to determine your eligibility for an immigration benefit.

Subject to the restrictions under 8 CFR 103.2(b)(16), USCIS will provide you with an opportunity to address any adverse or derogatory information that may result from a USCIS compliance review, verification, or site visit after a formal decision is made on your case or after the agency has initiated an adverse action which may result in revocation or termination of an approval.
